CLARK MONUMENT UNVEILING DRAWS IMMENSE THROG

Beautiful and Inspiring Ceremony at Fort Massac Held Yesterday Afternoon.

Metropolis Does Herself Proud as Entertainer.

PADUCAHANS ARE HONORED

Metropolis, Ill., Nov. 6. (Special.)—A brilliant throng, representing all that is best socially and politically in Illinois, perfect weather and impressively patriotic ceremonies marked the unveiling of the shaft erected at Fort Massac to the memory of Gen. George Rogers Clark and his soldiers. The throng literally filled Fort Massac park, and as the crowd stood, while 2,000 children sang "America" on that beautiful promontory, historically related to the winning of the middle west to the white man, the thoughts of all were carried back past the day when Aaron Burr, fugitive, rested himself on his flight south, to the time when the savage red man roamed the plains of Illinois and Kentucky and the hourly frontierman, rifle in hand, cleared the forests for the outposts of civilization; or as the brave band, whose deeds are commemorated by this monument, pushed on into the wilderness where the foot of white man never before trod, blazing the way for the restless horde of Saxons and Teutons, who centuries before had overflowed Europe and England in the same way.

The unveiling of this magnificent shaft, 50 feet high, marks the beginning of an ambitious scheme for the improvement of Fort Massac park, and state officials and citizens alike discussed the common subject of Fort Massac's future. Governor Deneen's administration is pledged to go on with the work.

The Kentuckians were greeted with a warmth of hospitality that made them feel like the guests of honor. The Paducah delegation went over in a body on the Cowling and were met by a committee, in charge of Mrs. Johns. They were conducted to the Odd Fellows building, where a reception was in progress and then they were entertained with the other guests at an elaborate luncheon. All Metropolis acted as host of the occasion. A pretty compliment was paid Kentucky by requesting Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hoone to lead the way to the dining room. Governor Deneen escorted Mrs. Matthew Scott, of Bloomington, chairman of the monument commission, and author of the monument movement. She also presided at the ceremonies, and no woman ever performed such a task with greater dignity and gracefulness.

A Beautiful Feature.
At the reception Miss Kerr rendered a charming song cycle, and then the party proceeded to the fort in carriages. The way was lined with school children, who waved flags. They extended along the driveway on both sides for the whole mile. They fell in behind the carriages and, grouped around the Metropolis band, sang "America." The effect of this simple, yet so subtly patriotic feature, was to imbue the whole ceremony with the loftiest sentiment.

Paducah figured once more in the proceedings. Miss Beatrice Chouteau Turner was ill and unable to unveil the monument; so Master James Ullrich and McCullough, son of State Auditor McCullough, performed the ceremony, and standing with him was Robert Owen Woolfolk, of Paducah. Both were introduced to the crowd as great great-grand nephews of Gen. George Rogers Clark.

The remainder of the program was gone through with just as arranged and there was not a hitch anywhere, while, as the ceremonies progressed, it was evident that the minds that planned the unveiling had left nothing undone that would add to the impressiveness or beauty of it all.

The Unveiling.
The monument was presented to the state by Mrs. Charles V. Hickox, of Springfield, Ill., state regent of the Illinois D. A. R., and was accepted by Governor Deneen.

Following a song, "Illinois," by Mrs. L. E. Yager, of Oak Park, Mrs. S. W. Jamison, state regent of the Virginia D. A. R., presented a copy of the original of the commission from Gov. Patrick Henry, of Virginia, to George Rogers Clark, when the latter was starting on his Illinois expedition.

Prof. J. C. Blair, of the University of Illinois, who superintended the construction of the monument, and a superintendent of improvement of Fort Massac park, gave some interesting facts regarding the monument. Taft Solid in Missouri--Maryland Electoral Vote Apparently Will be Split as it Was Four Years Ago

Bryan Carries Nebraska by Only 2,000 Majority and Tennessee Falls Below 20,000--Electoral Forecast.

New York, Nov. 6.—The membership of the electoral college which will choose the next president of the United States remained in dispute when the official counters in Maryland abandoned their task for the night.

According to the best information obtainable, the proportionate numbers of Republican and Democratic electors will be determined by a division of Maryland's eight votes. Half of the city of Baltimore and two of the 23 counties outside of that city are still to be counted, but there is a strong indication that the state vote will be split. In any event, the margin of victory will be so small that the state was claimed by the leaders of both parties.

Though the splitting of a state's electoral vote is unusual, it will be recalled that in 1904 Maryland elected one Republican and seven Democratic electors.

Missouri for Taft.
Missouri appears to be safely for Taft, to whom the latest returns gave a plurality of 2,500.

Conceding Missouri to Taft and leaving Maryland to be split between him and Bryan, the figures show 319 Republican electors assured and 156 Democrats.

Latest congressional returns indicate that the next congress will be composed of 216 Republicans and 175 Democrats, a majority for the Republicans of 41.

The returns for the Socialist and Prohibition parties are still far from complete, but indicate that the hopes of the Socialists have not been realized and that the Prohibitionists, in certain sections where gains have been expected, have been disappointed.

The figures for the Independence vote are also insufficient to give an accurate idea of what the party accomplished.

Socialist Vote Out Down.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The Socialist vote in Tuesday's election showed a great falling off in the record made in 1904 in the three principal cities of the county in which Socialism is strongest. Chicago Socialists, who polled 45,000 votes in 1904, were given less than 19,000 votes in the police returns and the most sanguine do not expect that the revised totals will exceed 21,000 votes for Mr. Debs. Cincinnati and Cleveland also listed an strong Socialist centers, according to the leaders of the party, polled a greatly decreased vote.

While admitting the adverse figures read by Mrs. Jessie Palmer Weber, of Springfield.

The response to the welcome address of State Senator Douglas Helm was made by Secretary of State James A. Rose.

The exercises were opened with prayer by the Rev. T. D. Latimer, at the end of which he read a poem written by Mrs. Laura Fessenden, of Highland Park, Ill.

Three distinguished persons who attended the dedication from Paducah were: Mrs. W. G. Whitefield, great-grand niece of George Rogers Clark; Robert Owen Woolfolk, great-grand nephew, and George C. Wallace, great-grand nephew.

The members of the Illinois D. A. R. who were present were: Miss Laura Browne, Joliet; Mrs. Henry Staats, Monmouth; Mrs. Ralph E. Brown, Bloomington; Mrs. P. F. Kimball, Bloomington; Mrs. Charles E. Irion, Ottawa; Mrs. J. R. Webster, Monmouth; Dr. Emma B. Standley, Alexis; Miss Lucy Garrett, Alexis; Mrs. J. S. McCullough, Springfield; Mrs. R. N. McCauley, Normal; Mrs. Frank B. THE CASH BONUS.

Elkins, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Senator Elkins is determined to settle the question of his daughter's marriage to Abner. It is reported Elkins informed the Italian royal family it must make an immediate decision. It is understood the dowry suggested is so large that it likely will prove an attraction even to Queen Margherita.

hres, A. M. Simons, a member of the national committee of the Socialist party, asserted that an increase was shown in the vote this year in the small towns.

Taft Has Missouri.
St. Louis, Nov. 6.—The political situation is unchanged. It will take the official count to settle it. The latest returns give Taft about 2,500. Both sides are claiming minor state offices. The legislature apparently is Democratic by five to eight.

Nebraska by 2,000.
Lincoln, Neb. Nov. 6.—The feature in the Nebraska election count was the steady decrease in the estimates. Bryan plurality. Returns complete from 81 of the 90 counties in the state give Bryan 121,080; Taft 118,699. The nine remaining counties will probably slightly reduce Bryan's plurality, but they can not wipe it out. The prospects are he has carried the state by a little over 2,000.

Maryland Splits Ballot.
Baltimore, Nov. 6.—With the official vote of one-third of Baltimore city and 21 out of 23 counties complete and estimating the missing districts on the basis of the unofficial returns, Taft had an apparent plurality of 176. The indications were that seven Bryan and one Taft electors had been chosen.

Tennessee Less Than 20,000.
Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 6.—As belated returns come in Patterson's majority in Tennessee is seen to be about 25,000, probably over rather than under these figures. Bryan is running about 6,000 behind Patterson, and his majority will hardly reach 20,000.

Fifth Carolina Republican.
Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 6.—By a gain of about 5,000 votes in the Fifth congressional district over 1906, the Republicans have elected James M. Morehead by a majority of 364 over A. L. Brooks, Democrat, who was nominated to succeed W. W. Kitchener, governor-elect.

Democrat Loses in Arizona.
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 6.—With practically complete returns from every county in Arizona but one, Ralph H. Cameron, Republican, is elected to congress, defeating Marcus A. Smith, Democrat, incumbent, by 504 votes. Cameron carried every precinct out of thirteen counties.

Michigan Solid.
Detroit, Nov. 6.—Complete returns show Taft's plurality in Michigan was 140,000. Warner, Republican, was elected governor by 7,500. Breiteneyer, Republican, was elected mayor by 24,000. There are only two Democrats in the legislature.

City Treasury Muddle

Nothing has been done by Mr. George Walters to secure the office of city treasurer, and he said he had not placed the question of his eligibility to serve in the hands of an attorney since the election, but John J. Dorian will continue in office until the courts decide who shall be treasurer.

WEATHER.

FAIR.

Fair tonight and warmer in central and eastern portions tonight. Highest temperature yesterday, 47; lowest today, 37.

SCHOOL QUESTION STILL AGITATING OFFICIAL MINDS

Special Bond Election is Being Urged by Many Citizens for Near Future.

Will Start in Next Year Crippled Again.

MAYOR SMITH IS INTERESTED

The exact condition of the city schools of Paducah, their immediate necessities, prospective revenue and the situation to be faced next year, probably will be overhauled in the next few days.

The failure of the bond issue has been a blow to the hopes of the trustees, but it is believed they will stay and face the situation. The failure of the bond issue, which had a big majority in favor of it, but not the required two-thirds, is no reflection of public sentiment against the trustees, and their constituents are looking to them to battle the thing through, as no one else understands the situation so they do.

It can be said, too, that Mayor James P. Smith is interesting himself in the situation, as the press and public are asking, and while he said positively this morning that he did not wish to be understood to be officiously intermeddling and trying to dictate in a matter outside his purely official duties, as a citizen and mayor of Paducah, he is ready and willing to cooperate with the trustees in relieving the distress of the schools.

It is known that since the election Mayor Smith has talked to Trustees W. J. Hill informally on the subject; though no conference has been arranged to discuss the situation thoroughly.

The schools may manage to get through this year in a crippled condition, anticipating July revenue again and carrying through June a debt of $4,500; but that would start them in next year with the same depleted condition of the treasury, with extra expenses of neglected repairs and the same dearth of sanitary and hygienic arrangements at the schools, as well as unfit equipment. Instead of cutting down expenses, there is an urgent necessity for the schools to increase the teaching force for the sake of the children, who are crowded many more in a room than a teacher can teach with justice to the pupils.

The Funds.
The money the schools will get can be estimated. State Treasurer Ed Farley said they will receive about $7,000 before January 1, and the city will give them approximately $13,000. In January the state will give them about $10,000 more and the city will give the schools about $18,000 up to and including July. It will require between $36,000 and $40,000 to run the schools during that period for salaries and incidentals, and there is a debt of $4,500 in notes, besides sidewalk assessments and the demands put upon the schools by the board of health.

It is not a pleasant prospect that confronts the schools, especially if they have to use up that $18,000 due in July for this year. A city can retrench from one year to another, but it is a different matter for a school to retrench, when its support now is so meagre that its equipment and the number of teachers and the pay are not up to the ordinary standard. Street improvements can be postponed, but the postponement of the improvement of a child's mind and the curtailment of expenditures to that end, are not lightly to be considered.

Some people suggest that a special election for a school bond issue be held, the amount of bonds to be limited to the actual present needs of the schools and that the question be carefully explained to the voters.

Young Patterson's Plight

St. Louis, Nov. 6.—Malcolm Patterson, son of Tennessee's governor, was refused enlistment in the regular army because of physical disability. It is reported that Patterson was driven by want to enlist rather than seek the aid of his father. Nashville dispatches say the governor is ready to help his son, but the latter won't accept. Young Patterson came here from Chicago especially to enlist.

CHANCE FOR TAFT.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 6. (Special.)—The official count in Franklin county shows the first elector on the Democratic ticket runs 119 ahead of the last elector. If this ratio is continued over the entire state Taft will get one elector in Kentucky.

LOVELACEVILLE

FIRE DESTROYS BUSINESS PART

Lovelaceville, Nov. 6. (Special.)—Fire, that started in the roof of Wombles' general store at 10:45 o'clock last night wiped out the business section of Lovelaceville and the fine new Methodist church, causing a loss of something like $20,000.

When first discovered by W. E. Wombles, who owns a barber shop in the building in which his brother ran a general store, the fire had already gained considerable headway and on account of its being in the roof, the citizens, who turned out to fight the fire with buckets of water, were unable to stay its progress.

The fire soon spread to the general store of V. S. Lovelace, and from that the Methodist church caught fire and was destroyed.

The fire was believed to have been under control when the A. S. Culver store caught fire and in spite of valiant efforts of the volunteers, the stock and building was destroyed. Along with it went Dr. Morris' office and home. The building was newly built of brick and was owned by Dr. Dismukes, of Paducah.

The building occupied by the Cumberland Telephone company was threatened, but Miss May Wombles, the operator never left the board. It is supposed that the fire started from a spark from an adjacent building, falling in a pile of leaves on the shingle roof of the Wombles store, which was a frame building owned by Dr. J. S. Davis.

Bardwell Assignment

At Temple Israel

At the conclusion of the regular services at Temple Israel tonight Miss Jeannette Goldbert, of Philadelphia, field secretary of the Jewish Chautauquan, will address the congregation. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Hubbard Returned

Election day was responsible in a way for the arrest of H. E. Hubbard, the young man charged with converting $300 from the Rhodes-Burford Furniture company to his own use. He was brought to Paducah last night and was placed in the McCracken county jail to await trial. Detective T. J. Moore located Hubbard and wired the police to arrest him when he returned to Henton, Ill., to vote. Hubbard gave a $300 bond for his appearance at the last term of court and it was forfeited, but Hubbard stated that he thought the bond would squish the case.

Reception For Paducah Business and Professional Men Will Follow—Ride Over City in Autos Planned.

Directors of the Commercial club held a meeting at the Palmer House this morning to make arrangements to entertain the members of the Chicago Association of Commerce, who will be in Paducah Monday morning, on a tour of a number of southern cities the mission of which is, to express it, as the secretary does in his letter to Saunders Fowler, "to convey the kindly greetings of Chicago to you, as our neighbor of the south, and thus strengthen the tie that should bind us together as citizens of a common country. We want to know you and have you know us, not as merchants and manufacturers, but as men and associates, feeling that you are agreed with us that the interchange of commodities is a more strongly influenced by social relations than by mercenary motives and that there is a greater incentive to business in a warm grasp of the hand than in any association."

The delegation will come on a special car Monday morning, via Cairo, at 7:45. The Commercial club reception committee will meet them at Eleventh street and Broadway with a special street car, and proceed to the Palmer House, where breakfast will be served. From 10 to 12 will be spent in a tour of the city in autos and buggies, and at noon a reception will be held in the parlors of the Palmer House for the business and professional men of Paducah, a buffet luncheon being served.

The delegation will go from here to Dyersburg, and Fulton, Jackson, Memphis and Arkansas and Louisiana points.

One Recruit Accepted.
Capt. William Reed, of Evansville, was in the city yesterday afternoon and recruited one man for the coast artillery. Paul Holland, of Golden Pond, from the recruiting officer, Sergeant C. A. Blake. Captain Reed came from Cairo and went to Princeton. Sergeant Blake is holding four men for recommendation. Paul Holland left this morning for Jefferson barracks at St. Louis.

DEFENDANTS IN BENNETT CASE ARE HARD TO LOCATE

Elwood Neel, deputy United States marshal, returned today from a two days' trip through Lyon, Trigg and Caldwell counties hunting up the alleged night rider defendants in the Bennett case. Two more defendants were served papers. Mr. Neel said it seemed as though properly had already struck the farmer he was looking for, as they were all out on short business trips and will not be back till the first or middle of next week. Mr. Neel has served 25 of the defendants out of 87.

Had Marshal Neel not been in Princeton Monday it is doubtful if he would have had over seven of the alleged defendants. Congressman Ollie James spoke at Princeton Monday and to the crowd that listened to him Marshal Neel served 18 of the papers. Since then he has served but seven of the papers.

BACKER DECLARES CASE AGAINST HIM IS SPITE MATTER

Deneen Being in Saloon Sunday October 18, and More Witnesses Are Called.

Grocery Company Fined For Sunday Selling.

RETAIL DEALERS GET BUSY

George Backer, a saloon keeper at Ninth and Caldwell streets, was the first to be arraigned in police court for a violation of the Sunday closing law since Mayor Smith's crusade several months ago, but on account of the conflicting statements of witnesses, who testified this morning, the case was left open until tomorrow morning. William Herbst, the prosecuting witness, testified that he bought beer at the saloon Sunday, October 18. Backer denied being in his place of business the afternoon the sale was alleged. Other witnesses who Herbst said were in the saloon at the time will be summoned. Backer alleges the warrant grew out of an altercation he had with a son of Herbst, who was fined in police court recently on a warrant procured by Backer, and that the present prosecution was brought in retaliation.

Grocery Case Appealed.
For an alleged violation of the Sabbath by selling groceries to a man named Wombles, the Jake Blederman Grocery company was fined $25 in police court this morning. Niek Smith was acquitted on a similar charge brought by the same witness, both cases being tried by jury. According to the evidence, Wombles was employed by the Retail Grocers to do grocery work who sold goods on Sunday in violation of the law. Both defendants claimed Wombles represented that he was in absolute need of the groceries and the defense was made on that point, the sale not being denied. Hon. Charles K. Wheeler appeared for the prosecution and several spirited tilts occurred between him and Judge James Campbell, attorney for the defense. The Blederman case will be appealed to circuit court.

Roosevelt in London

London, Nov. 6.—Roosevelt will occupy the country home of Pierpont Morgan when he reaches London on the completion of his African hunting trip. The house is already being overhauled in anticipation of the visit.

Federation Meeting

Washington, Nov. 6.—Samuel Gompers started for Denver, where the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor will be held next week. He declared he will answer on the floor criticism regarding his supporting Bryan and trying to throw the federation to the Nebraska. He said he is not seeking reelection as president of the federation. He will serve if elected, otherwise he will remain in the ranks. He believes he pursued the right course and expects criticism, but will answer it.

Gompers Re-elected.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Many delegates to the federation convention are gathering here preparatory to starting for Denver. The majority express the belief that Gompers will be re-elected. A plan to defeat Daniel Keefe for vice president, because he supported Taft, is dropped. It is doubtful whether Mitchell will be a candidate for re-election as vice president.

MORSE GIVEN 15 YEARS SENTENCE ON FRAUD CHARGE

New York, Nov. 6.—Morse was given fifteen years. Sentence was suspended on Curtis. They were found guilty last night on charges of misappropriation of funds of the National Bank of North America. On the conspiracy charge the verdict was acquittal.

Curtis, freed, returned to his home in the fashionable part of the city. Judge Hough explained that he believed Curtis was under the influence of Morse. Mrs. Curtis fainting when the sentence was announced. Morse never flinched. He was taken back to the Tombs, where both men passed the night. Attorneys are seeking to stay the sentence and will ask for a new trial. Morse was sentenced to the Atlanta, Ga., prison.

News of Theatres

"Human Hearts."
A strong impression did "Human Hearts" make upon a prominent clergyman in New York, that wrote to the gentleman impersonating "Tom Logan," vigorously endorsing the play and informing him of his intention of trotting all the clergymen of a local asylum out to see it at his own expense. And he did.

"You cannot conceive," said Man-ner Nankerville, "of the appreciation of those youngsters at the change of whom this afforded them, unless you had listened to that gallery that they attended." "With the 'gods' sent," he continued, "as often as I have myself enjoyed sitting through it. It was an enjoyable as a box of bonbons sprinkled over with tears. Quite often since, have city schools, whose principals were aware of the great merit in the play, been given a half holiday, that the youngsters might enjoy a matinee. And what out-spoken critics the tots have been! You can't get a favorable criticism of a padded enology for love of money from a juvenile. You must give him the goods, or he denounces you broadcast, and I am really grateful to the tots of America for their appreciation of what all now agree to be one of the best American plays." "Human Hearts" comes to the Kentucky Saturday, matinee and night, Saturday, November 7.

Black Patti.
There are many ways in which the Black Patti Troubadours differ from all colored attractions, and a visit to see this best of all shows when it comes to the Kentucky November 12 will compel those who have been complaining that all shows are alike to qualify this statement by adding except the Black Patti Troubadours, and this year the 13th Trans-American and California tour is mapped out. The many new musical hits include "Shooting Time," "Silas Green From New Orleans," "Texarkana Blues," "Oh My Miss Mandy," "And So Was I," "Mandy Lane," "Move On Mr. Moon," "Farewell Brother Silas, Fare You Well." A smashing olio of vaudeville acts comprises—Whitney and Tutt Comedy Duo, in a "Soldier of Fortune," "Slim Henderson" the "New Orleans Honey Suckle," the Woodens "fancy trick bicyclists and jugglers," James Goddard "20th Century Marvel," "Black Patti," the greatest singer of her race.

"Marrying Mary."
Edwin Milton Royle, whose smart musical play, "Marrying Mary," with Florence Gear and a large singing company, will be seen at the Kentucky theater on Tuesday, November 10, is one of the most painstaking of writers. He prepares his effects studiously and dexterously. His instinct of the picturesque is rarely at fault, he marshals his personages and arranges his scenes with a keen eye for effect. He is a strong, individual personage. His dialogue is copious and appropriate, and his dramatic points made with precision and rare insight into the essentials needed at the moment. He is imaginative and determined. His English is rare, nervous, with a kind of eloquence that is at once scholarly and homely. What he says is said so naturally that you accept it as the genuine outcome of the man's own experience and conviction. His "The Squaw Man," "Friends," "Captain Impudence," "The Struggle Everlasting," and "Marrying Mary," exhibit a man of wide knowledge of men and things and a keen appreciation of all that goes to make men and women sane, human beings. He is first of all a dramatist, an artist, that is, whose function it is to tell a story in action and by the mouths of personages. Whimsical and absurd as he sometimes is—for effect—he is never either the one or the other at the expense of nature.

Tim Murphy.
Good cheer will run up its pennant at the Kentucky soon when Tim Murphy, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Sherrod and a long cast of excellent artists, presents his latest success, "Cupid and the Dollar." The author, Charles Jeffrey, is new to the stage and he comes with a refreshing point of view, novel ideas and an unbacked method of presenting them. Mr. Murphy has the best role of his career, a typical American of mingled shrewdness and humor, and wholly lovable. The

All His Trouble in Vain.

To reach the loft of the Thompson Transfer company, 210 South Third street, Joe McKnight, colored, is alleged to have climbed a telephone pole and jumped in a rear window.

Then it is alleged that Joe edited a tale of hay into the story. As a precaution McKnight went to the front of the stable and charmed with the drivers for a few minutes. Then he went to the alley and peeked up the tale of hay and started off. The scheme was broken up by a pedestrian seeing the hay drop from the loft. Police Sergeant Emil Gaudin found McKnight with the hay and made him carry it to the police station, where he was locked up for public decency.

SCHOOL NOTES

The monthly meeting of principals was held this afternoon by Superintendent J. A. Carnegie. Only routine business was up for discussion. School was resumed this morning in the first grade of the Whitler building after the room had been fumigated thoroughly. A case of diphtheria was discovered among the pupils, but the health officials have taken steps to prevent an epidemic.

VOTE THIS YEAR IS MUCH LARGER THAN IN 1904.

One of the interesting developments of the recent election was that although the Republicans polled 600 more votes than at the last presidential election, they were defeated by 600 more in the county than in 1904, on account of the Democratic primary vote. Ninety percent of the vote registered was polled.

HOW IT MIGHT HAPPEN. V.

Here is a catastrophe that would not happen if drivers of vehicles would not drive rapidly out of a cross street and across the tracks. A driver was asked once what he did all day. "Sometimes I sit on the seat and think" he said "and sometimes I just SIT." Caution your driver to think—and listen and look—and go slow—when he comes out of a cross street to go over the car tracks.

There would be no excuse for you if you read this and forgot it. What apologies would you make to the dead horse?

Daily Thought.
Make yourself necessary to somebody.—Emerson.

Taft carried Missouri, Maryland and West Virginia. He carried the city of Memphis, and lacked less than 200 of a majority in Atlanta,
reducing the plurality in Georgia from 59,000 to less than 20,000 and carrying eight counties. The "solid south" is passing into history.

GOVERNOR WILLSON'S POSITION.

Parker carried Kentucky over Roosevelt by 11,893. Bryan carried the state by approximately the same plurality. There was a mighty effort put forth by the night rider element to run up a big Democratic majority in order to make the vote look like an expression of hostility to Governor Willson. Kentucky is normally Democratic on national issues, breaking over but the one time when the Courier-Journal bolted, but the majority is too small to be comfortable in a state election when moral issues are involved.

Governor Willson made speeches in the centers of the tobacco trouble.
Most of his time was devoted to a discussion of the local situation, and his visits did good, in renewing assurance to the law and order element that they have a governor, who will stand by them. In this judicial district and in Calloway county the effect of his speeches are evident in the result of the primaries. While the people accorded him enthusiastic demonstrations everywhere he spoke, they refused to regard the hostility of the night riders to the governor as a reason for changing their vote in the national election, and, too, Democratic county primaries discounted the efforts of the law and order element in the elections most affected by disorder.
At later elections, when the situation is not confused with national issues, the full strength and direction of the law and order movement will become more manifest. In view of the threats of the night riders to rebuke the governor, their failure to make a showing against Taft greater than that against such a strikingly popular man as President Roosevelt demonstrates to Governor Willson
that his course has not been disapproved.

FRIENDS OF THE SCHOOLS MUST

RALLY.

Friends of the schools, who fought valiantly for the bonds, must not desert the schools until the campaign is finished. That was just the initial skirmish. If they had won they would not have been through. It may be the failure of the bond issue will prove a good thing in the end. If the bond issue had gone through, those who stood to the front might have retired on their laurels satisfied, and left the impoverished schools, embarrassed with a bigger establishment to take care of and no funds with which to meet the increased expense account.

Now, the friends of the schools must rally their forces and prepare for the next battle. A bond issue of an amount sufficient to make needed repairs, secure proper equipment and improve the sanitary conveniences must be secured. That is one fight.

In order to win it, they must be able to show the voters just how every cent derived from the bonds can be used to advantage.

Next in importance is securing larger annual revenue for the schools.
They must go to the legislature for that, and the other three cities of the second class must be won over. If the legislature will increase the maximum for school purposes to about 50 cents on the $100, allowing the other cities to maintain the levy at the present figures, if they desire, it will be all Paducah demands. Then this school board should be reduced from twelve to five men, elected from the city at large, and the revenue, or a certain specified portion, should be held sacred by law for the teachers' pay.

In order to accomplish these ends
work must be commenced at once,
and an organization should be formed, through which the city may get in touch with the other three cities and with the legislature. Too frequently cities wait until the legislature is in session, and conflicting interests tie up the legislators, before they press their claims.

Particularly the women should remain with this cause until the schools
win. The women are more insistent in their advocacy of a cause, more single minded in their devotion to a purpose, than are men, and they have a great work before them, which pressed at this time while the public attention of Paducah is riveted on the schools, can be accomplished with the least effort.

HOW THEY TAKE IT.

"The triumph of the Republican party this year demonstrates all the more clearly the need of a strong Democratic organization. The strong-or the Republican party, the more determined should be Democracy. The people of the United States would be entirely at the mercy of the Republican party if Democracy did not exist."—Louisville Times.

"The Democratic party, though defeated, is in a much stronger position today than at any time since the victory of 1892. The defeat of Mr.
Cleveland in 1888 was, all things considered, more disastrous than that of Mr. Bryan this year. The Democrats have made more gains in this election than in any election since 1884, and the Democracy is a more vigorous, a more harmonious and a more effective organization than it has been as a minority party since the days of Tilden."—Lexington Gazette.

"This year's defeat of the party is but a temporary halt in the Democratic march to national victory. The principles of Democracy must finally prevail. The one important thing for Democrats to do, besides zealously cherishing and maintaining these principles, is to select for their leaders only the strongest and worthest; to discard demagogues and self-seekers."— Hopkinsville New Era.

"So amid the unneighborly and unpatriotic vociferation of the Republicans, the jubilation and intolerance of the Nondescripts flocking to the winning side—the blatant bullying of the leaders alike of predatory wealth and of plundering politics—let us sit steady in the boat, sustained by our own rectitude and holding to the oars
of what we conceive to be good government in the nation and in the state."—Courier-Journal.

"A dynasty is in sight and the people may never rule again."—Kentucky State Journal.

WARNING SENT

LAW AND ORDER MAN RECEIVES

A NOTE.

He Condemned Outrage in Tennessee
Town and the Night Riders Get After Him.

Jackson, Tenn., Nov. 6.—"Stay off the streets at night and on Sunday or you will wake up in hell some of these mornings," was the message, signed "Chief of Night Riders," that was sent to H. D. Robertson, of Denmark, the letter being mailed in Jackson.

This fact was learned in the city last night from a gentleman whose home is at Denmark. He states that Denmark is wild over the occurrence.
When the gentleman told of the message last evening it traveled rapidly
over the city and many are speculating on the question of night riders in Jackson.

This message was written on ordinary white paper and the letter was mailed and evidently written in this city. Should there be an order of this kind in Jackson, no one has learned of the fact.

The occurrence is not treated as a joke and Mr. Robertson and his friends are anxious over the outcome.
It was stated that the cause of the letter being written to Mr. Robertson was that he strongly condemned the robbing of an old negro man in Denmark several nights ago. The old negro was met on the street by two known parties, knocked down and robbed. Mr. Robertson, it seems, condemned this lawlessness in no uncertain terms. Some people in that town think that the parties who robbed the negro, are the authors of the note.

Mr. Nagel Returns to Germany.

Mr. Rudolph Nagel, a tobacco broker, associated with Mr. W. H.
Kennedy, will leave November 23 for New York, where he will sail for Germany on a two months' business trip and visit to relatives.

LETTERS OF GREETING SENT.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Final plans and the itinerary of the delegation representing the association of commerce which will start Sunday evening on a trip through the Mississippi valley, were announced yesterday at the weekly meeting of the association.
While the excursion will be primarily commercial in origin, letters are being sent to representative citizens in the cities which will be visited advising them that the delegation will not visit them with the purpose of soliciting business.

One of the main features of the trip will be the addresses on the subject of "Arts and Sciences of Children," by Professor Nathaniel Butler, dean of the college of education at the University of Chicago.

"People have heretofore talked of us as a commercial body merely after the almighty dollar," said Walter D.
Moody, business manager of the association, "and we have determined that this impression shall not be the most pronounced in this excursion."
A letter that is being sent in advance to the towns that will be visited is

The delegation will have the use of three cars. The train will leave the Illinois Central depot at 7 o'clock Sunday night and will return Nov. 22
and arrive at Paducah Monday, November 9, at 7:45 p. m. Leave Pa-

Advantages Seen in Trip.

The object of the coming invasion of the southland, and the results anticipated for the "Great Central Market" were discussed by various members at the meeting yesterday.

"If such trips as these could have been made many years ago and such organizations as the Chicago Association of Commerce had been in existence," said Edward M. Skinner, chairman of the executive committee of the association, "there would have been no civil war, and this trip will do much in bringing into closer business and social relations the north and south. The young men are making the country what it is and Chi-ca go today depends upon the young men for its future."

John Gibson, president of the Manilla Merchants' Association of the Philippine Islands, also made an address.

"The Manila Merchants' Association," he said, "is the most cosmopolitan of all business associations in the world. Although less than two years old, it has subscribed $50,000 to make known to the world the great resources of the islands."

"We have gold in abundance, now being mined by five American companies; we have coal in the greatest quantities, but more than 75 per cent of our coal is imported from Japan and other countries, because of the lack of facilities for mining our own coal."

Philippines Rich in Wood.

"The islands have 40,000,000 acres of all kinds of woods, a wealth of timber not exceeded anywhere, from which the United States will soon have to draw a supply. We have millions upon millions of acres of land as rich
as the land in the Mississippi valley.
Only 11 per cent of this is under cultivation for the support of the population of 8,000,000 people."

"The Philippine Islands have come to us as a divine donation, not through any effort on our part. They are a great paradise as compared with the Japanese islands. All we want is the legislation that will give us the same advantages that are given Porto Rico and the Sandwich Islands. We want those laws that mean simply justice to the Philippine Islands."

Short talks were made by J. P.
Hovland, E. H. Pitkin, Howard Ed-
ling and John W. Scott and Edwin S.
Conway, chairman of the deep water way committee, closed the speaking by cheering the success of the "little ballot" at the polls Tuesday. He offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, thanking the press of Chicago for "the noble and persistent stand and work that has been done for the deep water way and for the able and consistent manner in which the people and voters were informed as to the purpose of the little ballot and the proposed deep water way from the great lakes to the Gulf of Mexico."

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children. It strengthens and sustains the system; is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the strong.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist,

be sure you get the genuine. It is the only absolutely pure malted malt whiskey, and is sold in large sealed bottles only, never in while on a trip up the Tennessee af-boat happened about a half mile this side of Brookport. Richard Franklin the fireman, was burned about the face, neck and arms by the steam,

down by the force of the explosion.
Franklin crawled out of the engine serious. Capt. J. B. Smith, of 1744

who is in charge, was in the pilot house sitting on a stool. Captain stream. After the steam and vapor had cleared away the crew discovered that the bed clothes in the cabin were on fire. The fire was soon put out by the use of the fire hose. The boiler room and cabin were damaged to the extent of about $200. Captain Smith will not repair the old Harrison street, but will put in a new one which will cost about $1,000. The boat will be repaired immediately. The George Smith was knocked off the stool by the force of the explosion, which was directly under the pilot house.

Artistic Musical Program at Woman's Club Meeting.
The open meeting of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon was under the direction of the Musical department of which Miss Virginia Newell is the chairman. The program was artistic in its rendition and was charmingly satisfying to the large audience. Those taking part were: Miss Ella Wright, of Mayfield, pianist; Miss Mabel Wright, of Mayfield, violinist; Mrs. James Weller, contralto soloist, and Miss Newell accompanist.

The Misses Wright rendered two numbers each. The piano solo "Romance" by Svendsen was exquisitely played by Miss Ella Wright in opening, and her closing number was "Rhapsody in A minor" by Liszt. Miss Wright is an honor graduate of the Cincinnati College of Music and is a musical artist of rare charm. The violin solos of Miss Mabel Wright were rendered with sympathetic skill and gave much pleasure. The first was a double number by MacDowell, "Idylle" and "Shadow Dance," "Cavatina" by Raff and "Serenade" by Piere were the concluding numbers. The Misses Wright made a delightful impression here. They were the guests of Mrs. James A. Rudy, president of the Woman's club.

Mrs. Weller's beautiful voice showed to especial advantage in the series of six contralto songs by Ashford entitled "Woods," which she delightfully interpreted. Miss Newell accompanied her with charm and skill.
At the business meeting of the club held previous to the program, it was voted to change the quorum of the board meetings and the club meetings. The board quorum was reduced from 8 to 5 and the club quorum from 15 to 11. One new member was received, Mrs. John W. Little.

Like a Miracle Says Skin Sufferer.
Frightful cases of eczema cured by simple oil of wintergreen.
Physicians in general admit the superior value of simple medicines for all diseases.
For eczema and other skin diseases of a similar nature, certainly nothing in the world could be simpler than the formula for D. D. D. Prescription (oil of wintergreen compound in liquid form) now recognized as the remedy.
This wonderful remedy is composed principally of common oil of wintergreen, carefully combined with such well known healing and antiseptic substances as thymol, glycerine, etc.
Read this letter:
"About December, 1905, I sent to you for a sample bottle of your remedy, stating that I had a case of psoriasis of five years' standing. After trying it I ordered through my druggist, Mr. E. P. Griffin, six bottles of your remedy. I showed him how I was afflicted. The disease had covered my limbs, part of my body and began breaking out on my face.
"I began using D. D. D. Prescription according to your directions. Used five bottles and was cured sound and well. I showed my druggist again and he was surprised. Said it looked almost like a miracle to him.
"That has been almost a year ago and I see no signs of its return. I wanted to see whether it would come back or not, before writing you my everlasting thanks for such a great remedy.
"My skin is just as soft and nice as it ever was."

RACE FOR SPEAKER MANY AFTER JOB

Illinois Republican Leader Interested in Choice.

Louis J. Pierson and E. J. King Are Among Those Expected to Enter the Lists.

SHURTLEFF MAY RUN AGAIN

Chicago, Nov. 6.—The speakership of the Illinois house of representatives now becomes the chief topic of interest to the political leaders who are already preparing for the assembling of the new legislature.
As the list of new members of the general assembly is now made up from practically complete returns from the fifty-one districts, the Republican side of the house will be exactly the same size as in the last legislature. The roster as made up shows that the Republicans have chosen 89 members, the Democrats 63 and the Prohibitionists 1. The Democrats gain two while the Prohibitionists lose the two which the Democrats have secured.

May Oppose Shurtleff.
Edward D. Shurtleff, who has been speaker of the house for the past two sessions, is all but an announced candidate to succeed himself. It is understood that a working organization has already been perfected to secure his choice again as wielder of the gavel. In all likelihood Mr. Shurtleff will be opposed by Louis J. Pierson, of Wilmette, representative from the seventh senatorial district. It was declared that Mr. Pierson is shortly to announce his candidacy with the expectation of receiving more than cordial support from Governor Deneen and the state administration.
From Galesburg came the word that Representative E. J. King has been urged to announce his candidacy and will probably do so. William Tudor ApMadd, who served his first term during the last session as a representative from one of the Hyde Park districts, is seriously considering getting into the race. John L. Flannigan, of East St. Louis, who has been an announced aspirant for the speakership, finds on the face of the unofficial returns that he is tied with one of his Democratic opponents for the third place from his district. The result of which unlooked-for situation may have a baneful effect upon his aspirations.

As to the senate the defeat of Orville F. Berry, floor leader of the senate, is confirmed by complete returns from the thirty-second district. The defeat of Berry was a most crushing blow to the main cogs of the senate organization. The full effect of clearing up of the Carthage situation by his constituents will not be appreciated until the wheels of legislation begin to revolve at the state capital.

Trainmen Arrested
On affidavit of John Smith, a colored brakeman of the Illinois Central that he was made the victim of hold-up men while he was "deadheading" to Fulton on freight train No. 656, near Krebs Station early this morning, and $46 in money was stolen from him, Will Sweeney, white, flagman of the train, and James York, the negro brakeman, were arrested on this morning and brought to the McCracken county jail by Officers Carter and Gholson, of the Fulton police force.

Smith said he was riding in the engine cab when York told him he was wanted in the caboose by two special agents. When the caboose was reached he found the two trainmen who were arrested and two other white men, who grappled with him, he said, one striking him on the head with a piece of wood and knocking him down. Smith said that after his money was taken from him he showed fight and one of the white men shot at him, the ball striking a hook in his hip pocket in which it was buried. He said Fagman Sweeney tried to force him to jump from the train, which was moving at rate of 40 miles an hour.

When the Fulton officers searched the train they failed to find the white men described by Smith, but took the brakeman and flagman into custody. Because the robbery occurred in McCracken county the prisoners were brought here and locked up in the county jail. Sweeney's home is at Mayfield, while York lives at Fulton.

Mrs. James H. Black and daughter, Evelyn, of Terre Haute, Ind., will return home tomorrow after a several weeks' visit to Mrs. Black's father, Mr. John W. McKnight, and sisters, Mrs. M. G. Cope and Mrs. Elizabeth Teasdale.

The board of health will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the mayor's office at the city hall.

Thousands of 12 Year Old Girls have learned that it is an easy matter for them to make lemon, chocolate or coconut-custard pies if they use "OUR-PIE" Preparation. They simply pay the grocer 10 cents for a 2-lb package, follow directions on package and failure is impossible. Then they tell their friends about their delicious pies of which everybody wants a nice large piece. Don't hesitate; order today. If your grocer cannot supply you, go to one who will.

CONGRESS SAFE FOR REPUBLICANS

How Two Houses Will Stand on Organization.

New York Politicians Startled By Report That Reid Wants Platt's Toga.

AMBASSADOR IS COMING HOME

SENATE—Total Vote, 62.
Republicans 60
Democrats 32
Republican majority, 28.

HOUSE—Total Vote, 301.
Republicans 215
Democrats 176
Republican majority, 39.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—According to returns from all congressional districts in the United States the next national house of representatives will consist of 215 Republicans and 176 Democrats. It is possible that these figures may be changed later by returns from a few districts from which center figures have not been obtained.

The present membership of the house is 223 Republicans; 166 Democrats, and there are two vacancies.

Reid in New York.

New York, Nov. 6.—What was regarded as a sensation came to local republican circles from authoritative party quarters that Whitelaw Reid, ambassador to Great Britain, will in all probability be the next United States senator from New York, to succeed Thomas C. Platt.

It was asserted that Mr. Reid has communicated his desire to retire from the ambassadorship. Mr. Reid admitted the attractions presented by the senatorship.

In many quarters it was held by Republicans in authority that the remarkable showing in Kings county would make Timothy L. Woodruff a formidable candidate to succeed Platt. It was argued that he would present an opportunity supporting former Governor Frank S. Black and Edwin Root.

Being a young widow gets to be awfully monotonous.

CURES ECZEMA QUICKLY.

New Drug, Poslam, Now Obtainable in Small Quantities.

Since its discovery one year ago the new drug, poslam, has successfully cured thousands of chronic cases of eczema and other distressing skin affections. Heretofore poslam has been dispensed solely for the benefit of eczema patients in large jars sufficient for a month's treatment. This was found to be an inconvenience to many thousands who use it for minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., which require but a small quantity to cure. To overcome this, and in response to urgent appeals, the dispensers of poslam have been obliged to adopt, in addition to the regular two-dollar package, a special fifty-cent size, which in future may be found at Gilbert's and other leading drug stores in Paducah, or may be ordered direct from the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West 25th street, New York City. In all eczema cases poslam stops itching with first application, and proceeds to heal immediately; chronic cases being cured in two weeks. In less serious skin troubles, results are seen after an overnight application.

Samples for experimental purposes may still be had, free of charge, by writing to the laboratories for them.

SPLENDID FOR THE OLD FOLKS

Prescription to Cure Rheumatism Which Anyone Can Mix.

Put this out and put in some safe place, for it is valuable and worth more than anything else in the world. If you should have an attack of rheumatism or bladder trouble or any derangement of the kidneys whatsoever. The prescription is simple and can be made up by anyone at home. The ingredients can be had at any good prescription pharmacy and all that is necessary is to shake them well in a bottle.

Here it is: Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup of sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime. A few doses is said to relieve almost any case of bladder trouble, frequent urination, pain and swelling, weakness and backache, pain above the kidneys, etc. It is now claimed to be the method of curing chronic rheumatism, because of its direct and positive action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys. It gives them life and power to sift and strain the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, relieving the worst forms of rheumatism and kidney and bladder troubles. The extract dandelion acts upon the stomach and liver and is used also extensively for relieving constipation and indigestion. Compound sarsaparilla cleans and enriches the blood. There is nothing better than Kargon Compound for the kidneys.

This prescription is safe to use at any time.

The Hero Who Was Honored.
George Rogers Clark, an American general, was born in Allegheny county, Virginia, November 19, 1752. He died in Locust Grove, near Louisville, Ky., February 18, 1818.

He began life as a land surveyor. In 1772 he visited Kentucky and commanded a force of armed settlers there. In 1776 he was elected to the Virginia assembly and secured the formation of Kentucky.

In 1777 Clark was commissioned to take possession of the forts in the northwest territory, then under the jurisdiction of Virginia. He and his men embarked on the Ohio river, floating down to a small recess a short distance above Fort Massac. From here he went overland through water, swamps and difficulties innumerable, to Kaskaskia and Vincennes.

All of the fertile region northwest of the Ohio river was wrested from the British by the valor of this soldier, yet he died in poverty. The state of Virginia sent him a sword after he became old and poor, which he broke to pieces, exclaiming: "When Virginia needed a sword I gave her one. She sends me now a toy. I want bread."

The Daughters of the American Revolution by diligent effort secured the passage of a bill through the state legislature in the year 1903, which appropriated $10,000 for the purchase and restoration of the site of Fort Massac. Twenty acres of land were purchased, and work was commenced in the winter of 1904. The transfer of the fort to the state took place December 28, 1903.

A broad gravel drive encircles the fort, which was converted into a park, and numerous foot paths run in all directions. The four bastions have been rebuilt and mounted with cannon. At the corner that projects farthest out over the river a large standard has been erected, and by its side a stately monument towers in commemoration of George Rogers Clark and the heroes known and unknown who defended this sacred spot. The trench which was dug around the fort is still discernible. The massive entrance which has been built to Fort Massac park is indeed a monument to the zeal and enterprise of the Illinois Daughters of the American Revolution.

Condensed History of Fort.
Fort Massac is on a rolling plain on the northern side of the Ohio river 38 miles from its mouth and 10 miles below Paducah, Ky. It commands an extensive view of the river. In its days of usefulness it stood 23 feet above highest water mark. From this point of vantage, with the aid of a field glass, objects were distinguished 14 miles down and 18 miles up the river.

As De Soto and his followers were the first white men to discover the Mississippi river, so were they the first to select a temporary resting place on the banks of the Ohio at Fort Massac. Hence, it was first occupied by white men in 1542.

In 1700 the French founded the first permanent trading post here for the purpose of securing buffalo hides from the Mascoutens (neighboring Indians). Indians from long distances came here and the French decided to send for the Jesuit minister (Father Mermet), as it was a good field for mission work. He called his mission Assumption and it was called Fort Assumption until 1731. This mission and trading post endured until 1705, when Indians routed the French. Another trading post and mission was stationed here from 1710 until 1756, the date of the French and Indian war. This post then consisted of a guard house, a palisaded house and a cabin used as a store room. In 1731 the old fort was partially rebuilt and during this year the massacre occurred, which changed its name from Fort Assumption to Fort Massac or Massacre.

Later N. Aubry was ordered by the French commandant of Canada to depart with 150 Frenchmen, 100 savages and three pieces of cannon to establish a fort on the Ohio river. With good judgment he selected the position once held by the old trading post, Assumption. The fort was completed June 2, 1757, the doors were closed and the cannon placed upon bastions.

The French continued to occupy the fort until the country was surrendered to the English. During the month of June, 1759, three hundred soldiers and six hundred Indians, marched through Fort Massac to the relief of Fort Niagara. Early in 1760 the governor of Canada ordered that the fort be rebuilt and strongly fortified. Accordingly, it was terraced, fortified and reconstructed. A deep ditch was dug so as to surround the entire fort.

The same year of the French treaty of peace with England, 1763, Capt. Thomas Stirling embarked with the Forty-second English regiment and descended the Ohio to its mouth, accepting the surrender of Fort Massac en route. The military agents of the English urged the repair and occupancy of the fort immediately upon its surrender by France, but England did not heed. Had it been held and well manned and equipped, George Rogers Clark's expedition might have been seriously hindered. During the thirteen years the British held the country Fort Massac was under the command of Thomas Stirling, Robert Farmer, Edward Cole, John Reed, John Wilkins, Hugh Lord and Matthew Johnson.

George Rogers Clark certainly carried the American flag with him during his conquest of the northwest. As he landed at Fort Massac June 24, 1778, it is not only possible but quite probable that at Fort Massac the Stars and Stripes were first unfurled in Illinois by Clark and his men.

In 1787 Spain endeavored to intrigue for the seizure of Fort Massac. The price to be paid was $200,000. Luckily, the plot failed.

In 1794, when General Wayne sent Major Thomas Doyle to serve as a garrison, the fort was occupied for the first time by military forces of the United States. Fort Massac thus rebuilt and garrisoned, became a point of considerable importance, and so remained until after Burr's conspiracy.

Aaron Burr arrived here in June, 1805, spending four days with General Wilkinson. He sought to aid the Spanish, who were advancing upon Wilkinson. Burr's colleague in this enterprise was Blennerhassett, whose wife spent a day and night at Fort Massac. Wilkinson reported Burr's traitorous act to President Jefferson and aided in arresting the guilty.

During the year of 1812 Fort Massac was well equipped, and was not really abandoned until 1814.

THANKSGIVING IS DAY FOR BIG GAME

Chess Club and Athletics Will Play Ball.

Pigskin Warriors Will Meet in Combat on Gridiron at League Park
Then.

HIGH SCHOOL HAS OPEN DATE

Interest in the Thanksgiving Day game between the eleven of the Paducah Athletic club and the Chess, Checker and Whist club is increasing every day, and the game has begun to go the rounds already. The victory of the Athletic club in the first game may put the odds on that team, but the showing of the Chess, Checker and Whist team in Wednesday's game has elevated the supporters. The Chess team has been strengthened in both line and back field, and steady practice has made better team work. The Athletic club team has continued practice regularly and the line will be shifted a little before the big game.

Both teams have correspondence on for games in order to be in trim. The C. C. & W. team will play Mayfield here November 12, while Metropolis and Madisonville are dickering for a game with the P. A. C. team. The injuring of Burns, the quarterback on the Athletic club has left the position open, and Tucker, the sub-quarter, is having a fight to be the regular man.

On Thanksgiving Day good plays may be looked for, as the coaches of both teams have finished the rough work on the teams, and the fine plays are being worked steadily. Both teams promise to have plays with passes that will bewilder the opponents. Should plays through the line fall both teams will have plenty of fakes to help out of the hole.

High School Open Date.

No game is scheduled for Saturday by the High school football team and the players will be given a day off. Practice has not been discontinued. As Coach Evans has the players out perfecting plays. Manager George Scott has letters from the Evansville

High school and the Henderson High school teams asking for a date on November 14. Both teams would be expensive to bring to Paducah, but it is thought that one team will be taken on, as the Paducah lads have won from every team in western Kentucky of their weight. The High school players will play the Thanksgiving Day game away from home probably.

WITH POCKET KNIFE

MRS. JEFF TAYLOR CUTS HER THROAT NEAR PUGH FLAT.

And Drowns Herself in a Well—Mind
Was Unbalanced—Second Time.

Mrs. Jeff Taylor, wife of a prominent farmer living near Pugh Flat in Long Hollow district, drowned herself in a well on Wednesday night of last week, after having cut her throat with a pocket knife.

The deed was committed some time during the night, as she left her room while other members of the family were asleep, and when found, her body was lifeless in a well near the house.

Some weeks ago she undertook to drown herself by jumping into a well, but was rescued by her two little daughters. Her mind had been unbalanced for over a year, and this is the cause assigned for her rash act.

She was formerly a Miss Chandler, and was perhaps forty-five years of age. A husband and several children survive her.—Cadiz Record.

SMALLER FORCE

WORKING SHORTED HOURS AT ILLINOIS CENTRAL SHOPS.

Number of Men Dropped in Each Department—Married Men Are Preferred.

With a reduction of 199 men to the working force the Illinois Central railroad shops were running today on the eight-hour schedule. The men that were unfortunate were notified last night, and this morning at 9 o'clock the checks were paid to them. The shops will open at 7 o'clock in the morning and will close at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The men that were dropped were considered by the foremen of each department, and many things were considered before a man was released. The time he had served, the value of his work and his ability were taken into consideration, and in case of a tie the married man was kept on the force. The cut in the different department was: Ninety-six men in the car department, 35 machinists, 35 laborers, 7 boiler-makers, 7 helpers, 1 apprentice, 4 helpers, 4 painters, 4 pipemen and 2 tinner.

The simplicity of merchant tailoring is always noticeable. Your real gentleman is never overdressed; and the tailor shop is primarily supported by the best class in every community.

"Nifty" and "classy" twirls—crazy patches and straps are not good form; a good tailor won't violate his artistic sense by using them. If he did he would at once lose prestige—his judgment would no longer be considered safe.

The merchant tailors' suits embody dignity and distinction of style. They are never so glaring as to preclude the possibility of your wearing them until they are worn out completely. They do not necessitate an excuse anywhere you wear them. You feel that you are properly addressed in any circle.
